LA TAIMADA, PERFORMING THREE OF THEIR WORKS IN CATALAN LOCATIONS DURING APRIL

Lo.Li.Ta

The eight day

Crash

LO.LI.TA has been created expecting something very simple and slanted: the audience will be the one conferring the true meaning to the images created. From the company what is offered, honest and cruel, is the look.

Biblioteca Francesc Candel (Barcelona), Wednesday, 25th of April, at 7 pm.

THE EIGHT DAY: God created the world in six days. On the 7th, he rested. On the eighth day, human beings decided to take the reins of their destiny and they self-destructed. Violence is intrinsically human and sinister; it is full of beauty and sensuality. People who look like monsters, and monsters who are so fragile that they almost look human.

Teatre Municipal de Cal Bolet (Vilafranca del Penedès), Saturday 28th of April, at 8 pm.

CRASH: Two performers arrive together inside a car. They argue. She gets out of the car and slams the car door. He waits. He follows her. Crash is a crash of two bodies.

Festival Fes Chapeau (St. Pere de Ribes), Sunday 29th of April at 9 pm; and on Monday 30th of April, at 9:15 pm.
