'PAPER BUBBLES', IN MARCH, WILL BE TOURING IN CATALONIA

The show Paper bubbles, by Múcab Dans company will be touring, in March, around different cities in Catalonia. An interactive, participatory and visual show to let go the imagination, in which the company mixes Dance, Music and Multimedia Interaction, in real time, to accompany the public in surprising and exciting small trip.

Paper bubbles can be seen:

Saturday 18th March, at 18:00h in Teatre Atrium de Viladecans.

Sunday 19th March, at 12:00h in Teatre Atrium de Viladecans.

Sunday 26th March, at 12:00h and 17:30h, in SAT!Teatre de Barcelona.

Paper bubbles is a visual and plastic proposal that plays from the imagination of a childs (and the adults) transporting them to a place where everything is possible. A journey through a fantasy world filled with bubbles of soap, of paper, digital, balloons, shadows, with black light,...

A dynamic and magical show where, young and old, can't look off the stage and where they will be actively involved at the end traveling to Bombalia.
