Maps

Mons (When I close my eyes)

Paper Dreams

- Maps will be on november 5th in Borja (Zaragoza), at the Municipal Auditorium, at 19:00h.

Maps Synopsis:

Four timeless characters, laden down with old suitcases, meet on their journey in an unremarkable space in an unremarkable city. For a while, they become accidental travel companions on a journey where they lose and find themselves, share experiences and communicate as best as they can, each providing their own perspective and manner to everything they discover: sounds, landscapes, languages, smells, tastes...

Maps is a journey across the maps of the different cultures around the world...

- Mons (When I close my eyes) You can be seen on november 6th at the Foment Theater of Martorell, at 12:00h, in the 'Pla d'Impuls de la Dansa'.

Mons (When I close my eyes) Synopsis:

Inspired by the work of the author and illustrator Jimmy Liao, this production is suitable for all ages. It entices us into these intimate universes where we go when things aren't so great. Imaginary worlds where we find security, breathe peacefully and stroll leisurely. A kaleidoscopic world filed with strange magical shapes where everything is possible.

- Paper Dreams will be from 9th to 20th November, at the New Victory Theater in New York, doing 19 performances for schools and families.

Paper Dreams Synopsis:

A piece of paper can be transformed into a thousand different things... A flower, a bird, a fish and even a sound... Things that help us to explain small dance stories... Forgotten bits of dreams... Paper dreams... Will we wake them up?
