THOMAS NOONE DANCE STARTS A NEW PROJECT

In June Thomas Noone Dance starts a new project creating a work to be shown the 'Merce Festival', Barcelona's citywide open air festival. In this production the company dancers are joined by the sixth year students of the CSD del Institut del Teatre in an initiative to offer a valuable performing experience to these young dancers.

The 40 minute piece will be accompanied by a new musical composition by veteran collaborator Jim Pinchen and will be shown in Barcelona's emblematic Ciutadella park.
