NEW CREATION FOR THE MERCÉ FESTIVAL

Thomas Noone has created a new outdoor work for 18 dancers, bringing together the 6 dancers of Thomas Noone Dance and 12 students from the fifth year of Conservatorio Superior de Danza del Institut del Teatre de Barcelona. The piece, titled Origen lasts 40 minutes and investigates the conflict within the dancer, the balance between the animal wanting to move and the intellect vying to control and the parallel that can be drawn with our own human behaviour. Origen is accompanied by music composed by Jim Pinchen especially for the occasion.
