With this show, Roberto G. Alonso proposes us an initiatory, poetic and playful journey to enter the world of the fascinating painter of the Generation of 27, Maruja Mallo. Her varied work, full of surreal symbolism and disproportion, is the ideal vehicle to connect with the imagination of children: what better way, then, than to transform it into movement to create a surprising and visual spectacle that awakens the creativity of the little ones.

On the other hand, the company will make school performances of Almazuela, on March 17 and 18, at the Casal de Cultura in Vacarisses (Barcelona).
