THE STREET SHORT VERSION BY 'COWARDS' IN THE FESTIVAL CÁDIZ EN DANZA

Cowards

Àngel Duran Performing Arts will perform the street short version by Cowards show, within the Festival Cádiz en Danza, on June 13, at 7 p.m., on Paseo Santa Bárbara in Cadiz. For more information, check this link:

Cowards questions the mandates of contemporary masculinity and how men feel challenged by other men to publicly confirm their virility. In short, the piece talks about the inability of men to express their weaknesses or to avoid confirming their fragility, denying their feelings, except for the rage or anger that they show through the exercise of violence, the only valid feeling and the only applauded, acclaimed and admired by traditional masculinity.
