

Associació de Companyies
Professionals de Dansa
de Catalunya

ROSELAND MUSICAL PREMIERES SHOW AT THE GREC

I am from here

The Roseland Musical company premieres a new production within the framework of the Barcelona Grec Festival (<https://www.barcelona.cat/grec/ca/espectacle/roseland-musical>). The piece can be seen, on July 19 and 20, at the SAT – Sant Andreu Teatre (<https://www.4tickets.es/sat-teatre/public/janto/main.php?Nivel=Evento&idEvento=ST497>).

I am from here is a dance performance for young people that, in a fresh and fun way, portrays the daily life of a group of neighbours in the inner courtyard of a block in Barcelona's Eixample neighbourhood. Through dance and movement, we learn the relationships between them, their day-to-day coincidences, plurality, celebrations, and conflicts. A set of fragments that show how, despite apparent differences, contact and coexistence in public space weave community bonds.

