ANGEL DURAN PERFORMING ARTS OFFER DIFFERENT SHOWS IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

Cowards

Papillon

The Beauty of It

Àngel Duran Performing Arts will perform three of its shows at different events during this month of October.

The Beauty of It can be seen, on the 7th, at the Centre Cívic Teixonera within the Barcelona Cultural District; and on the 14th, in Vilanova de Bellpuig (Lleida), within the Jornadas del Patrimoni. Both performances are free.

The Beauty of It is inspired by popular documentaries from the 50's and, through Carl Jung's theories, the piece opposes the conscious and unconscious mind, immersing us in a reflective state in which the performer is the object of study, but also a mirror of ourselves. Carried away by the different qualities of movement and emotional expressions, we delve into the human condition.

The street version of Cowards will be performed at the Fiestas del Pilar in Zaragoza, on the 11th.

The show questions the mandates of contemporary masculinity and how men feel challenged by other men to publicly confirm their virility. In short, the piece talks about the inability of men to express their weaknesses or to avoid confirming their fragility, denying their feelings, except for the rage or anger that they show through the exercise of violence, the only valid feeling and the only applauded, acclaimed and admired by traditional masculinity.

The company will perform Papillon, on the 13th, within the Festival Arteria Tortosa (Tarragona). For more information, consult this link:

Papillon exposes the collision between impulse and sensitivity; and false freedom and real freedom. Under the pretext of presenting the performer in a light cocoon, the new identity is questioned; the uniqueness of the new Platonic caverns; and the dance of lights constitutes the new blindness; and the cables make up the new chains.
