

Associació de Companyies
Professionals de Dansa
de Catalunya

‘JO, TRAVESTI’ BY CIA. ROBERTO G. ALONSO TO BE PRESENTED AT THE GUADALAJARA INTERNATIONAL BOOK FAIR (MEXICO)

Jo, travesti

Cia. Roberto G. Alonso will travel to Mexico to present Jo, travesti at the Guadalajara International Book Fair (FIL), as part of Barcelona’s performing-arts programme while the city serves as Guest of Honour. The show will be performed on 3 and 4 December in Guadalajara (Jalisco).

Jo, travesti is an “alterfiction” about transvestism that celebrates drag art and culture and pays tribute to the long Catalan tradition of drag performers and celebrity impersonators from the 20th century to today. Playwright Josep Maria Miró crafts an act of “dramaturgical cross-dressing” by writing an autofiction based on Roberto G. Alonso’s biography, bringing to the stage a lineage of bold, transgressive drag references and reclaiming overlooked memories.

Blending theatre, music and dance, the production honours the art of transformation and some of the most iconic drag figures in our cultural history, celebrating stage freedom and identity as a space of change.

