

CIA. MIQUEL BARCELONA TOURS WITH 'ORGIA' AND REVIVES 'ROJOS' AT THE DANSAT FESTIVAL

Cia. Miquel Barcelona will have a busy October schedule across Lleida, Madrid, Valencia, Barcelona and Seville, with several performances of Orgia and the revival of Rojos at the Dansat Festival at SAT! Sant Andreu Teatre.

The tour of Orgia will begin on October 8 at 8 p.m. at Teatre Municipal de l'Escorxador in Lleida. It will continue on October 10 and 11 at 7 p.m. at Nave 73 in Madrid; on October 15 and 16 at Carme Teatre in Valencia; and on October 31 and November 1 at TNT Atalaya in Seville. The piece explores today's hypersexualized gaze and reclaims the body as a space of freedom, pleasure and resistance, drawing on the languages of countercultural dance forms such as voguing, waacking, twerk and dancehall.

Another highlight of the month will come on October 23 at 8 p.m. with the revival of Rojos at SAT! Sant Andreu Teatre in Barcelona, as part of the Dansat Festival. Centred on the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War, the piece returns to the stage with a generational handover that brings in younger performers while keeping alive its research into memory, repression and dissenting voices.

The following day, October 24 at 12 noon, the company will present the outdoor version of Rojos in Plaça de Can Fabra, also as part of Dansat al carrer. This version brings the piece's exploration of memory into public space and strengthens the dialogue between contemporary dance, territory and collective memory.
