

TWO OCTOBER DATES FOR CIA. SOL PICÓ WITH 'LA CORDERO Y SU EJÉRCITO' AND 'MALDITAS PLUMAS'

Cia. Sol Picó faces October with two engagements showcasing different facets of its stage universe. On October 2, Sol Picó will take part in Coslada (Madrid) in the gala celebrating Larumbe Danza's 30th anniversary at the Teatro Municipal. The choreographer will present an excerpt from La Cordero y su ejército, a piece shaped by the physical power, irony and distinctive stage presence that characterise her choreographic language.

The second engagement will take place on October 24 at Teatre Municipal de Can Gomà in Mollet del Vallès (Barcelona), where the company will present Malditas Plumas. The work draws on the world of vedettes, cuplé and the cabarets of Barcelona's Paral·lel to create a journey between tenderness and decadence, fiction and reality. Dance, music, theatre and humour come together in a contemporary reimagining of this popular universe, reflecting on dreams, unfulfilled desires and the passage of time.

